WANT TO READ MORE LARKIN BAY ROMANCE? Vsit: www.LeanneStanfield.com

Cover Illustration and Design by Jenna Fifield

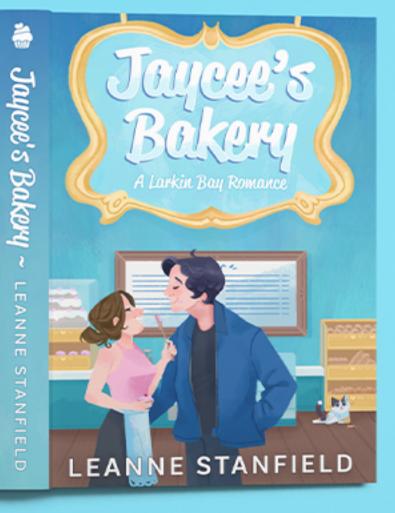

When a heartbroken Jaycee Loughton returns home to reunite with her family, she finds them in dire financial straits. Using her talents to open a bakary in idylic Larkin Bay seems the perfect way to forget her cheating boyfriend and help pay the bills. She just never imagined an arsonist would target her hometown and threaten her dream.

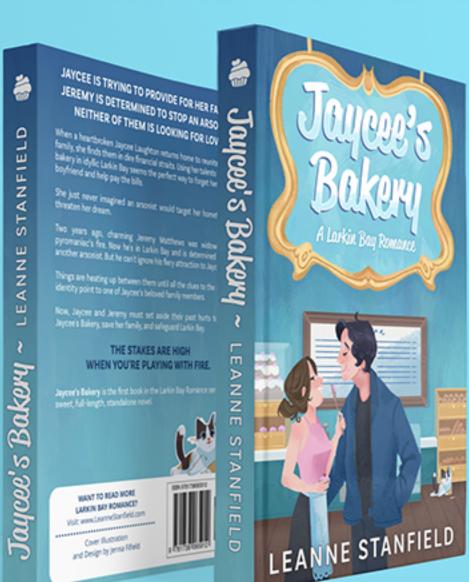

Two years ago, charming Jeremy Matthews was widowed by a pyromaniad's fire. Now he's in Larkin Bay and is determined to catch another arsonist. But he can't ignore his flery attraction to Jaycee.

Things are heating up between them until all the clues to the ars dentity point to one of Jaycee's beloved family members.

THE STAKES ARE HIGH WHEN YOU'RE PLAYING WITH FIRE.

I work with an aesthetic that combines figurative allusions with domestic surroundings. By abstracting motifs of the domestic, and blending them with illustrative and organic shapes, my work explores our relationship to our constructed and decorated environments. Pastel colours, forms, and patterns are combined within my sculptures, and screen prints, to develop whimsical arrangements that often suggest still life and bodily vessels. My work stimulates the imagination by translating space and object-memory into active, nonsensical environments that ask the viewer to reconsider his/her personal surroundings.
